

Forza 5

Home

La Grand Caldera

Guanjuato

Ek 'Balam

Forza 5

Ready To Explore the Vast Open
World of Mexico?
Join Forza.

What are you waiting for?

Come join a huge community of car enthusiasts who love racing, cruising and fine tuning their dream cars!

Forza 5

Take a Journey across the snow-capped La-Grand Caldera with Buggy's Stories

X

X

X

X

Forza 5

Explore the city of Guanjuato in the heart of the Forza festival

X

Lamborghini Aventador Superveloce 2016

X

Porsche 918 Spyder 2014

X

Koenigsegg One:1 2015

X

Koenigsegg Regera 2020

FORZA
HORIZON 5

Forza 5

Uncover the lost ruins of Ek 'Balam buried in the middle of the forest

Ek' Balam is a Yucatec-Maya archaeological site within the municipality of Temozón, Yucatán, Mexico.

It lies in the Northern Maya lowlands, 25 kilometres north of Valladolid and 56 kilometres northeast of Chichen Itza.

Ek' Balam is a Yucatec-Maya archaeological site within the municipality of Temozón, Yucatán, Mexico.

It lies in the Northern Maya lowlands, 25 kilometres north of Valladolid and 56 kilometres northeast of Chichen Itza.

Ek' Balam is a Yucatec-Maya archaeological site within the municipality of Temozón, Yucatán, Mexico.

It lies in the Northern Maya lowlands, 25 kilometres north of Valladolid and 56 kilometres northeast of Chichen Itza.

Ek' Balam is a Yucatec-Maya archaeological site within the municipality of Temozón, Yucatán, Mexico.

It lies in the Northern Maya lowlands, 25 kilometres north of Valladolid and 56 kilometres northeast of Chichen Itza.

Ek' Balam is a Yucatec-Maya archaeological site within the municipality of Temozón, Yucatán, Mexico.

It lies in the Northern Maya lowlands, 25 kilometres north of Valladolid and 56 kilometres northeast of Chichen Itza.

Ek' Balam is a Yucatec-Maya archaeological site within the municipality of Temozón, Yucatán, Mexico.

It lies in the Northern Maya lowlands, 25 kilometres north of Valladolid and 56 kilometres northeast of Chichen Itza.